Part of the tunnel is open to the public as tunnel experience area and plastic models are used to show how the miners worked in years gone by.

✧ Jiufen

Jiufen used to be the center of gold mining, located within the hills in northeast of Taiwan. The village is next to the mountain and facing the sea, gold city of Asia and called little Shanghai or little Hong Kong. However, with the decline of gold mining activities, Jiufen fades. Later, several movies chose to shoot here and the movies won international acknowledgement, such as "Spirited Away". It is said that long time ago there were only nine families in Jiufen. Before the roads on land were built, all materials were transported via ships. Thus a habit was formed that nine pieces of same object were purchased at one time for reservation. Hence, the place was called Jiufen. Jiufen literally means "nine pieces" in Mandarin.
